

ANARCHIST

PHANTOMS OF SOUL ST.

Just when you thought it was safe to go to hardcore shows, ANTI-ANTI attacks you with its third issue, the DIE issue. First we scared you with our DEATH issue, then we struck back with our DEMOCRACY issue, now, when you thought things were looking up for your Life, we are attacking you with the DIE issue. The prophecy is being fulfilled.

We stated in our DEMOCRACY issue that the ANTI-ANTI Troops were going to regroup and map out the strategy for our third assault. Well here it is, in this issue we bring you more show reviews, fanzine reviews, news, ~~and an interview with Y-DI~~, and an interview with Y-DI. We hope to get our fourth issue out soon but it may be hard due to ANTI-ANTI's increasing interest in continental travelling. So far we have visited NE Philly, Center City, Cherry Hill, Delaware, and we have even reached as far as Atlantic City! Well that's Life, now onto a little article a friend sent me regarding the subject of Love:

Youth charged in theft of head from a corpse

By Tom Torok
Inquirer Staff Writer

A 16-year-old Lancaster County youth who police said had "an abnormal fascination for dead bodies" was charged yesterday with stealing the head of a corpse from one of two burial crypts he had raided.

From the second crypt, the youth stole bits of powdered bone and put them in a container in his grandmother's spice rack, police said.

Authorities said it was the second time in a year that the youth had been arrested for tampering with graves.

THANK YOU TO - L. ROSS for

Wasn't that sweet? When reading this issue you may want to receive the full effect of the writing. In order to do this you must do the following 1. write the word DIE in cats blood on the cover. 2. dig a hole one foot deep and place the entire fanzine inside then cover it up with Transylvanian dirt, (don't forget to throw the cat in too!) 3. Wait for the first full moon, then recover it from the earth, and then the clincher; slit your wrist and try to read the entire Y-DI interview. We apologize for any cerebral damage that may (and usually does) occur when reading ANTI-ANTI in this fashion. Well, good luck and thanks for your support or lack of it. The Editor,

Once again another great show sponsored by the B.Y.O., at the now world famous WEST SIDE CLUB. The show was originally planned to be the GRAND OPENING for the new B.Y.O. hall. But for some reason we weren't able to get the hall in time for the show, so it had to be moved across town. Since the show was announced on the radio and Jeff's house isn't all that big it was as you can imagine, unbelievably crowded and very hot. The first band to perform that night was Y D I. This band lets nothing stand in their way from giving it their all. Neil was loud and full of energy as always. You can not help getting into this band, especially when they rip through songs like MAD AT THE WORLD, WHY DIE, and OUT FOR BLOOD.

Y-DI

Y-DI Demo tape not for sale
15 songs-Highlights include Whv Die,
Out For Blood, Stand up and Fight, 1983, Rizzos coming Back, and Mad at the World.

The recording quality on this tape is not what you would call great but the sound quality cannot stop Y-DI's energy from coming through.
Nothing can! Jackals voice is crisp and clean when he sings and when he screams it comes through as a throaty gurgling gnarl. This is demonstrated best in Out For Blood. The song Whv Die has got to be an anthem-it also is a great sing along as are most of Y-DI's songs.
There are some instrumentals on the tape also and they too shred. Some of Y-DI's best songs are their slower ones like Mad At The World and Whv Die, but they can pour on the energy to create a frantic fury of rage in other songs like Not Shit and Out For Blood and also Stand Up and Fight. Do yourself a favor and come out to the Love Club June 25th to see Y-DI along with Negative Approach.

HOUSTON HALL-SAT. MAY 14th-4.00 Little Gentlemen
FONDAS- RUIN-MORE FIENDS
Y-DI- FINAL CONFLICT

There wasn't a big turnout for this show but those who did show up were enthusiastic. Maybe this lack of attendance was because everyone was worn out from the night before with MDC at the Love Club.

First to play were the Little Gentlemen who I haven't seen in a while. They did a really good energetic set, which included the title track from their great new single I Am The Gun. I was real happy to see them again and hope they play sometime in the near future.

Next up were the Fondas. This was the first time I seen this band and I loved them!!!
They did an extremely tight set highlighted with a "bitchen" version of Wipe Out and a guest appearance by the Fondettes (AKA FOD) singing backup vocals on Secret Agent Man.

After the Fondas was Ruin, who I want review (great loss huh?) since the editor wants to review them so badly. Nevertheless, they were great as usual.

The 4th band was More Fiends, whom I admire for their originality.
They've obviously been practicing because they sounded a lot better than the first time I saw them at Penn with BOT.

After the More Fiends was the band I was really excited about--Y-DI.
Y-DI is probably my favorite local band, and they get tighter and more intense everytime I see them. There's really not much I can say about Y-DI since most of us have seen them no explanation is necessary. Their set was fantastic as usual.

The last band of the night was Final Conflict. Unfortunately a lot of people left, and it was a shame because they missed a good band who we might not see for a while since they just lost their drummer.

The only gripe I had about the show was the crowd size. Too bad not many people came out because it was a great show. MAUREEN WELSH

RUIN's Set WAS SO TIGHT
It was unbelievable. VOC was incredible as USUAL and the rest of the bands show easily made this the best show by a local band that I have ever seen. The highlight was the song PROOF.
Their timing on this song is a miracle.

WHY DIE

You're engulfed in gloom and doom
You live in a world of hate and greed of disease and poverty of maniacs and murderers
You have had, you've had enough
You're life fades as blood oozes out Out of a fresh, self-inflicted wound
But ~~people~~ your death doesn't change a thing
Your death doesn't change a thing
You have had, you've had enough
Why Die? Why Die?
Why Die? Why Die?
FIGHT AND SURVIVE

On New Years Eve '82 Y-DI made their live debut at the Loft playing with five other local bands. Musically speaking, Y-DI was far from impressive that night. Still though, they showed a great deal of potential due to the fact that they were so incredibly energetic on stage. Well, time has passed, and Y-DI has had time to practice their material and work out the kinks. The result can best be described by their May 21 appearance at the Love club. Eight bands played that night including 3 NY bands, a DC band, and Fang and Flipper. In my own opinion and in many others, Y-DI was the best band of the night. Why? Because they have tightened up their sound without, (heres the tricky part) losing any of their energy on stage. Songs like Out For Blood, 1933, Why Die, and Hell Hole easily demonstrate how this Philly band could outplay such bands as Iron Cross, Heart Attack, Fang, and Flipper.

The interview was performed on May 21.
We thank Y-DI for taking the time to fill the interview out and then returning it to us along with a lyric sheet. THANKS.

AA-How did the band members meet each other and get together to form Y-DI?

Y-DI-We were all fucking the same girl and we met at the Black Flag/SOA show.

AA-What are the bands musical influences?
YDI-Ourselfs and Toni Basil.

AA-What are Y-DI's favorite bands?

YDI-CHUCK-Fall, Black Flag, Trouble Funk, and fucking Venom.

MIKE-Alice Cooper + Meatmen.

JACKAL-Minor Threat, Poison Idea, GBH, Meatmen, Venom, Terueet Kadet, Iron Cross, Bad Brains, Toni Basil, Negative Approach, Motorhead, just about all local bands-FOD, Ruin, American Dream (from Bethlehem), Little Gentlemen, + Final Conflict.

HOWARD-SOA, Minor Threat, Ruin, Poison Idea, Husker Du, Negative Approach, Bad Brains, Angry Samoans, Germs, Venom, Little Gentlemen, and American Dream.

AA-Who writes most of the lyrics and music?

YDI-Mike + Jackal write the words (mostly Jackal), we all have input in making songs.

AA-How long have the members been playing their instruments?

YDI-MIKE-6 or 7 or 8 years.

CHUCK- about 4 years, seriously for about one and a half years.

HOWARD-16 years.

Jackal has been screaming since birth.

AA-Does the band try to relate any messages in their songs?

YDI-Some songs yes, some songs no. The songs are pretty obvious and they speak for themselves.

AA-What do most of the songs deal with?

YDI-Life and Death.

4/16

On May 13 Y-DI played in Bethlehem PA along with three other local bands and Bethlehem's own American Dream. What were your impressions of that scene?

YDI-Fucking excellent, it was a good turn-out for a small area, the crowd was enthusiastic, all-out thrashing and they didn't know to take off their spikes, no circle dancing, just non stop thrashing. Lehigh Valley punks are very young, 14-18, and they don't see many shows. They have at least three hardcore radio shows and a fanzine called Chainsaw. American Dream set up the show + did a good job. AD fucking ripped, their tape is great and they will play Philly this summer-don't miss them. All bands got wild responses.

AA-Would you like and do you plan on going back?

YDI-We will go up there whenever American Dream sets up more shows. We are dying to go back up.

MAD AT THE WORLD

....Out for Blood

Look into my eyes and see
I'm not normal you can believe Savage fury, uncontrollable rage
I'm gonna put you in the grave
Visions of murder
Run rampant through my mind
Death to all humankind
I'm mad, mad, mad at the world
No money, no family, no home, no job
No life, no nothing, nonothing, no di no nothing
I'm mad, mad, mad at the world
I'm ugly, I'm awkward, I'm poor, I'm nothing
I'm mad, mad, mad at the world

AA-Were the kids in Bethlehem familiar with Y-DI?

YDI-Some of the kids heard Out For Blood on the radio Chainsaw show.

AA-Are you getting any airplay on local or other radio stations?

YDI-WXPR, Chainsaw, Max R+R show. We made a tape it was our first demo recorded Mar. 12 with 15 songs recorded by Oho who also produced Final Conflicts tape. Anyone who wants to contact him can write to us.

AA-What scene would Y-DI most like to play.

Jackal-DC, Finland, Detroit, Boston, Japan.

Howard-DC, LA, Boston.

Mike-Boston, LA, DC, Midwest towns.

Chuck-Wherever people would show up, west coast, Hawaii.

AA-Are there any possibilities of Y-DI releasing a 45 soon?

YDI-In the summer hopefully.

AA-Have any of the members of Y-DI been in other bands?

Chuck-Not in any working band.

Jackal-Legion of Decency.

Howard-Deranged, Sadistic Exploits.

This truly was a great night. All of the bands played intense hot sets. It was the first time that I had seen NJF and they did impress me a lot. The other three warm-up bands were all very good except DRI, they were great! The Dirty Rotten Imbeciles played real original thrash tunes that captured everyones attention. Their set was a bit too long but I'm not complaining. MDC came on stage with a lot more hair than when i last saw them in Philly (Black Flag syndrome!) They played all of the best tunes from their LP plus new tunes such as Multi Death Corporations, Nowhere to Piss, and Radioactive Chocolate. Like I said before, a great night.
